ABA Standing Committee on Law and National Security in cooperation with the ## Reserve Officers Association of the United States present a panel discussion on Due Process and Terrorism

Tuesday, June 17, 2008 Speaker Bios

- John D. Altenburg Jr. John Altenburg, Of Counsel to Greenberg Traurig, served 28 years as a lawyer in the Army where he represented the Army before Congress, state and local governments and in court. He recently served as the Appointing Authority for Military Commissions, Office of the Secretary of Defense.
- Bradford Berenson: Bradford Berenson is a litigation partner at Sidley Austin LLP in Washington DC. Prior to joining Sidley Austin Mr. Berenson served as White House Associate Counsel from 2001-2003 where he helped to craft the Administration's response to the terrorist attacks of September 11th.
- Eugene Fidell: Eugene Fidell is a senior partner at Feldsman Tucker Leifer Fidell, where his practice includes military law. Mr. Fidell is also the President of the National Institute of Military Justice and has previously served in the United States Coast Guard.
- Susan Baker Manning: Susan Baker Manning is a litigation partner at Bingham McCutchen. Ms. Manning served as counsel in cases involving the due process and terrorism, including Qassim v. Bush.
- Kate Martin: Kate Martin is the Director of the Center for National Security Studies, where she previously served as the Center's litigation director. Ms. Martin has also taught Strategic Intelligence and Public Policy at Georgetown Law School and served as general counsel to the National Security Archive at George Washington University. Ms. Martin has written extensively on the topic of the tension between security and civil liberties
- Harvey Rishikof: Harvey Rishikof is Professor, National Security Law at the National War College. Professor Rishikof has also served as the Dean of Rogers Williams University School of Law and Legal Counsel to the Deputy Director of the FBI.
- Suzanne Spaulding: Suzanne Spaulding is a Principal at Bingham Consulting Group, LLP. She has previously served as the Democratic Staff Director for the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, Senior Counsel/Legislative Director for Senator Arlen Specter, Assistant General Counsel for the CIA, and General Counsel and Deputy Staff Director for the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence.