

Let Your Writing Skills Shine

Admiralty and Maritime Law Committee Annual Law Student Writing Competition

The Admiralty and Maritime Law Committee of the American Bar Association Tort Trial & Insurance Practice Section is offering its annual writing competition, open to all law students. By writing an essay on Recent Developments in Admiralty and Maritime Law, students are eligible to win $500, plus up to $500 reimbursement towards attendance at the TIPS Spring Meeting in Amelia Island, FL or the ABA Annual Meeting in Toronto, Canada .

Topic: Recent Developments in Admiralty and Maritime Law

Maximum length: 20 pages, double-spaced, 12 point Times New Roman

First Prize: $500, plus up to $500 reimbursement towards attendance at the TIPS Spring Meeting in Amelia Island, FL or the ABA Annual Meeting in Toronto, Canada.

Submission Deadline: April 8, 2011

Please submit all essays to Laurie Sands at: lsands@wolffsamson.com

For the writing competition rules visit:

<http://www.abanet.org/tips/market/11AdmiraltyLawStudentWritingRules.pdf>

As the only committee in the ABA that is dedicated to maritime law issues, the Admiralty and Maritime Law Committee strives to serve as the primary resource for admiralty and maritime law education and knowledge. Bringing together plaintiffs' attorneys, defense attorneys and insurance industry counsel for the exchange of information and ideas, the Committee provides its members with endless opportunities that will prove to be professionally rewarding.

To learn more about the Admiralty and Maritime Law Committee or to join, visit:

<http://www.abanet.org/tips/admiralty/home.html>