

BETTY WERYBERG ELLERIN

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

January, 2000 to Present

Additional Justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York - First Department

March, 1999 to December, 1999

Presiding Justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York. First Department

March, 1985 to March, 1999

Associate Justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York - First Department. (First woman appointed to this bench.)

January, 1982 to March 14, 1985

Deputy Chief Administrative Judge of the State of New York for the New York City Courts, with administrative responsibility for the operation of all the trial courts within the City. This entailed overseeing the activities of over 425 judges, nine local administrative judges and non-judicial personnel numbering over 4,700. (First woman appointed to that position.)

January, 1980 to December 31, 1981

Justice of the Supreme Court assigned as Judge-in-charge of the complex in New York County specially created to eliminate the heavy backlog of cases involving the City of New York. The complex consisted of a calendar-conference part, over which I presided, plus back-up trial parts and a clerk's office. Over 4500 cases were disposed of by trial or settlement, during this period.

July, 1978 to December 31, 1979

Acting Justice of the Supreme Court assigned to Criminal Term Trial and Calendar Parts for felony cases in New York County, through September 1979, then to the Civil Term City Part.

January 1, 1977 to July, 1978

Judge of the Civil Court of the City of New York assigned to the Criminal Court, New York County, in arraignment and calendar parts.

January, 1955 to December 31, 1976

Law Secretary to Justice Harry B. Frank, originally in the City Court and, after court consolidation in 1962, in the Civil Court, and from November 1965 until his retirement, on December 31, 1975, in the Supreme Court. Thereafter I served as both Law Secretary to Justice Jacob Markowitz, Presiding Justice of the Appellate Term and as Acting Chief Law Assistant of the Appellate Term until Justice Markowitz's death and thereafter Law Secretary to Justice Samuel Rosenberg;

July, 1952 to January, 1955

Associated with Klein & Ruderman, New York City, a firm specializing in maritime-personal injury matters.
