The ABA Commission on Women in the Profession is Proud to Present a Distinguished Panel of Margaret Brent Awardees in a Town Hall Meeting

on

The Unfinished Journey of Women in the Legal Profession

Featuring

Honorable Rosemary Barkett, Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals

Carol Dinkins, Partner, Vinson & Elkins LLP; Former U.S. Deputy Attorney General

Elaine Jones, Former President and Director-Counsel of the NAACP

Janet Reno, Former U.S. Attorney General

You are invited to sponsor a town hall meeting featuring a select group of the ABA Commission on Women's Margaret Brent Award winning trailblazers, discussing issues raised by the Commission on Women's newly-released "Charting Our Progress" report, including the generational divide, obstacles and opportunities facing women lawyers, and the special challenges confronting women lawyers of color, as evidenced in the Commission on Women's study "Visible Invisibility: Women of Color in Law Firms." You may view a copy of the Commission on Women's "Charting our Progress" report at www.abanet.org/women/ChartingOurProgress.pdf, and obtain a copy of the "Visible Invisibility" study at www.abanet.org/women/home.html.

The Margaret Brent Awards were established in 1991 to recognize and celebrate the accomplishments of women lawyers who have achieved professional excellence in their field and paved the way to success for others. The Margaret Brent Award recipients have influenced other women to pursue legal careers, opened doors for women lawyers in a variety of job settings that historically were closed to them, or have advanced opportunities for women within a practice area or segment of the profession.
