

Present

LITIGATION AND THE LEGAL RIGHTS OF
BREAST CANCER PATIENTS

Thursday, March 15, 2007 - 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
Seattle University School of Law (Room C5 on the court level) - Seattle, WA

* 3.0 CLE credits approved - There is no charge to attend. ****

Cancer patients face a variety of legal problems related to their illness, including health care concerns, insurance company refusal to authorize needed treatment, and employment-related issues. This seminar will provide information to assist attorneys who do not ordinarily handle cases of this type become aware of practices, procedures, and statutory enactments that will help them to assist clients with legal problems resulting from their illness.

- 8:30 a.m. Registration
- 9:00 a.m. Program Introduction
Joan Tierney - President, Washington Women Lawyers
- 9:10 a.m. Federal Laws and Protection for Breast Cancer Patients and Employees
Fara Goodwin - United States Department of Labor
- 9:25 a.m. Training on Breast Cancer and Legal Advocacy
Lish Whitson - Moderator
L. Susan Scelzo Slavin - Labor and Employment
Roberta Watson - ERISA
Priscilla Keith -
Melissa Burke-Cain - Washington Attorney General's Office
- 11:15 a.m. Anita Miller - Program Implementation
- 11:30 a.m. Questions & Answers

TO RSVP, contact Carla C. Lee at carlaclee@comcast.net by March 13, 2007.

For additional information about the ABA Commission on Women Breast Cancer Legal Advocacy Initiative, please call the ABA Commission on Women at 312-988-5715 or visit the Commission web site at www.abanet.org/women/breastcancer.html.