Eligibility for 2011-2012 ABA YLD Appointments

Pursuant to ABA YLD Bylaws, a "young lawyer" means a lawyer who has been admitted to practice in his or her first bar within the past five years, or is less than thirty-six years old as of September 1, 2011.

Furthermore, unless otherwise provided, no person shall be eligible for any appointment unless he or she is a member and young lawyer as of September 1, 2011, but the Council may prescribe additional qualifications or otherwise limit eligibility, or may extend eligibility.
