AWARDS

Harrison Tweed Award

The ABA Standing Committee on Legal Aid and Indigent Defendants and the National Legal Aid and Defender Association are now accepting nominations for the 2006 Harrison Tweed Award.

The award will be presented in August at the 2006 ABA Annual Meeting in Honolulu, HI, in recognition of work accomplished during the year beginning April 1, 2005. Projects that began before that date will be considered if substantial services were provided between April 1, 2005 and March 31, 2006. Nominations must be received by April 3, 2006.

For more information, including a full description of the award, past recipients, and nominating procedures, visit www.abanet.org/legalservices/sclaid/harrisontweedinfo.html

2006 ABA Partnership Awards

The ABA Standing Committee on Bar Activities and Services is now accepting entries for the 2006 ABA Partnership Awards. The submission deadline is Friday, March 31, 2006.

The ABA Partnership Awards Program recognizes efforts by bar associations to increase the participation and advancement of lawyers of color in the organized bar and to attract students of color to the legal profession. The program is open to all bar associations that can demonstrate how their efforts nurture or increase diversity in the legal community.

Visit www.abanet.org/barsersv/partnership.html for more on the awards, including the application and winning entries from past years.

RESOURCES

Health Law Section Offers Workshop Help
