Innovating Conflict Resolution Around the World.

The AAA-ICDR Foundation® is fulfilling its critical mission to support the use and improvement of dispute resolution processes in the USA and internationally. The Foundation supports conflict management and resolution, research and education, increasing access to justice and sharing expertise across groups and cultures.

IN 2018 THE AAA-ICDR FOUNDATION FUNDED THE FOLLOWING GRANTS:

- ABA Fund for Justice and Education
- Arizona State University Foundation
- Association for Conflict Resolution Elder Justice Initiative on Eldercaring Coordination
- Association for the Organization and Promotion of the Vienna Mediation and Negotiation Competition
- Community Mediation Services
- Conflict Resolution Center of Baltimore County
- Consensus Building Institute
- CUNY Dispute Resolution Center at John Jay College
- Environmental Advocates of New York
- Essential Partners

- Harvard Negotiation and Mediation Clinical Program
- Institute for Communication and Management of Conflicts – D.U.C.K.S
- International Mediation Institute
- Kennesaw State University, School of Conflict Management, Peacebuilding and Development
- King County Office of Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Quabbin Mediation
- The Coalition on Racial and Ethnic Justice
- The Mediation Center
- The Ohio State University Foundation

Learn more, donate or apply for grants at aaicdrfoundation.org.

The AAA-ICDR Foundation is a separate 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization from the AAA and is not involved in any way in the oversight, administration or decision making of the AAA/ICDR cases or in the maintenance of the AAA/ICDR’s various rosters of arbitrators and mediators.

©2019 AAA-ICDR Foundation. All rights reserved.