Welcome from the Chair

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Since 1996 the ABA Commission on Racial and Ethnic Diversity in the Profession (the Commission), has annually recognized legal professionals who have demonstrated professional excellence and who have shown a commitment to racial and ethnic diversity in the profession. Past honorees have distinguished themselves and have shown an enduring passion for helping others to succeed.

Spirit of Excellence Luncheons are often viewed as the highlight of the ABA Midyear Meeting; not only because of the tremendous accomplishments of the honorees but also because of their stories of selfless service. These stories serve as reminders that while eliminating bias and enhancing diversity in the legal profession are challenging goals, one person can definitely make a difference. This year’s honorees are no exception and have all worked individually, within groups and across boundaries to promote diversity and inclusion. They include Heather Kendal-Miller, a human rights lawyer who has focused her career on promoting Native American causes; General Kenneth Gray, a former university administrator who was the first-ever African American judge advocate in U.S. military history to attain the rank of general or admiral; Alan N. Braverman, general counsel for one of the world’s largest entertainment companies; and U.S. Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals Judge James Wynn, whose entire career speaks of his commitment to justice and for diversifying the profession.

I sincerely hope that you enjoy today’s program and that you leave with fresh inspiration and renewed enthusiasm for combatting bias and for promoting diversity and inclusion. On behalf of the Commission, I welcome you to the 23rd Spirit of Excellence Awards Luncheon!

Sincerely,

Will A. Gunn
Chair
ABA Commission on Racial and Ethnic Diversity in the Profession
Message from the President

Dear Colleagues:

On behalf of the American Bar Association, I would like to welcome you to the Spirit of Excellence Awards Luncheon. This event recognizes lawyers who have demonstrated excellence in their professional settings and an unwavering commitment to increasing diversity in the legal profession. Today, we celebrate those who promote the noble goals of equality and justice and help to make these ideals a reality.

A racially and ethnically diverse profession is critical to the continued vibrancy of our system of justice and we must continue to examine ways our profession can better reflect the public it serves. We have made great progress thus far; however, racial and ethnic groups, sexual and gender minorities, and lawyers with disabilities continue to be underrepresented in the profession. There is still much work to be done. We must appreciate the role diversity plays in sustaining justice for all within our legal system and country.

I am proud to honor those recipients who have demonstrated exemplary leadership and achievements to raise the bar of excellence within the legal profession. Please join me in congratulating Alan N. Braverman, Major General (Ret.) Kenneth D. Gray, Heather Kendall Miller and the Hon. James A. Wynn, Jr. These honorees illustrate excellence, through promoting full and equal participation and lifting obstacles to achieve real progress.

Our thanks to the Commission on Racial and Ethnic Diversity in the Profession for helping to support the accomplishment of those recognized today and for hosting such a worthwhile event.

Sincerely,

Hilarie Bass
President, American Bar Association
Message from the President-Elect

Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to join you for the Spirit of Excellence Awards, a highlight of the ABA Midyear Meeting. Today’s honorees exhibit what we all admire and wish to emulate: dedication, perseverance, and leadership in service to the public and our profession. We are grateful for the opportunity to honor the extraordinary contributions of Alan N. Braverman, General Kenneth Gray, Heather Kendall-Miller, and Judge James Wynn. We are proud of these trailblazers and are inspired by them as we continue to work for justice and a more diverse and inclusive profession.

Many thanks to our guests and sponsors, and to the ABA Commission on Racial and Ethnic Diversity in the Profession for producing this outstanding event.

Sincerely,

Robert Carlson
President-Elect, American Bar Association
Message from the Executive Director

Dear Colleagues:

Welcome to the Spirit of Excellence Awards Luncheon, our traditional Midyear Meeting opportunity to celebrate attorneys who have promoted diversity most effectively within the legal profession.

Since the Spirit Awards began 22 years ago, some 130 individuals from across the profession have been honored for their efforts. This year, I’m pleased to congratulate Alan N. Braverman, Major General Kenneth D. Gray, Heather Kendall-Miller, and Judge James A. Wynn, Jr. as they join the prestigious list of honorees. Special thanks to the ABA Commission on Racial and Ethnic Diversity in the Profession for its ongoing work to recognize the accomplishments of such exceptional individuals.

Our diversity is one of our greatest strengths—as an Association, as a profession, and as a nation. Sometimes the path to get there is not easy; as the Spirit of Excellence Award motto states, “Ad Astra per Aspera—to the Stars through Difficulty.” But thanks to the contributions and perseverance of leaders like today’s honorees, we are making progress toward a more diverse and dynamic future, in spite of occasional setbacks.

Our Association is focused on four goals. Goal III calls for the elimination of bias and the enhancement of diversity in the legal profession and the justice system. The Spirit Awards are a time to reflect on how each of us can work to advance that goal. Today’s award recipients serve as inspirations to everyone as we work to shape a better, more inclusive world.

Sincerely,

Jack L. Rives
Executive Director and Chief Operating Officer, American Bar Association
About the Award

The Spirit of Excellence Awards celebrates the efforts and accomplishments of lawyers who work to promote a more racially and ethnically diverse legal profession. Awards are presented to lawyers whose commitment to racial and ethnic diversity in the legal profession is evident in their workplace and at the national, state, or local level. When you participate in the Spirit of Excellence Awards event with your purchase of a ticket or your sponsorship, you help fund the innovative projects and programs implemented by the ABA Commission on Racial and Ethnic Diversity in the Profession. These programs work to ensure that diverse lawyers enter and stay in the practice of law which benefits the profession and those it seeks to serve.

Ad Astra per Aspera—
“To the Stars through Difficulty”

The motto of the Spirit of Excellence Award symbolizes the struggle of racially and ethnically diverse lawyers as they travel the road to personal and professional success. Special indeed is the person who can navigate his or her way, while paving the way and assisting those who follow.

ABA Legal Opportunity Scholarship Update

Closing Remarks by Will A. Gunn
Alan N. Braverman was named Executive Vice President and General Counsel of The Walt Disney Company in January 2003, and promoted to Senior Executive Vice President and General Counsel of The Walt Disney Company in October 2003. He was also appointed Secretary in October 2005. In his position, Mr. Braverman is the chief legal officer of the Company and oversees its team of attorneys responsible for all aspects of Disney’s legal affairs around the world. Previously, Mr. Braverman was Executive Vice President and General Counsel, ABC, Inc. and Deputy General Counsel, The Walt Disney Company. Mr. Braverman joined Capital Cities/ABC, Inc. from the Washington, D.C. law firm of Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering, where he started in 1976. He became a partner in 1983, specializing in complex commercial and administrative litigation. Before joining Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering, Mr. Braverman was a law clerk to the Honorable Thomas W. Pomeroy, Jr., Justice, Pennsylvania Supreme Court.
Major General Kenneth D. Gray is a native of McDowell County, West Virginia. General Gray was the first African-American General Officer in the history of the active Army Judge Advocate General’s Corps. He received his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from West Virginia State College in 1966 and was commissioned a second lieutenant from the Reserve Officers Training Corps. In 1969, he received his Juris Doctor from West Virginia University’s College of Law where he was the only African American student for the entire three years he attended. After law school, he served on active duty in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General’s (JAG) Corps and he eventually became the Army Deputy Judge Advocate General. He is a graduate of the Judge Advocate General’s School Basic and Advanced Courses, located at the University of Virginia; and the Industrial College of the Armed Forces, Fort McNair, Washington, DC. He also graduated with honors from the Army Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Following his military career, Gray served as Vice President for Student Affairs at West Virginia University.
HEATHER KENDALL-MILLER

Kendall-Miller is Alaska Native (Athabascan) and hails from Fairbanks, Alaska. She is a graduate of Harvard Law School and has dedicated her career to public service. She was first a law clerk at the Alaska Supreme Court, and then served as a Skadden Fellow where she worked as a staff attorney for the Alaska Legal Services Corporation representing indigent clients in court and in administrative hearings. During the second year of her fellowship, she worked for the Native American Rights Fund, where she has continued her groundbreaking work ever since. Over more than 25 years practicing in federal and state courts, Ms. Kendall-Miller has established foundational legal principles protecting Native American subsistence, tribal sovereignty, and human rights. In a lifetime of public service, her civil activities outside the law include board memberships with The Wilderness Society; the Alaska Native Justice Center; The Social Justice Fund; the Honoring Nations Governing Board, the Conservation Foundation; the American Bar Association, Section of Individual Rights and Responsibilities; teaching at the Anchorage Youth Court; serving on the Alaska Supreme Court Committee on Fairness and Access to the Judicial System; and, serving as liaison to the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.
Judge James A. Wynn, Jr. serves on the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. One of the first nominations by President Obama, he was confirmed unanimously by voice vote in 2010. In the twenty previous years, Wynn served on the North Carolina Court of Appeals and Supreme Court of North Carolina. Wynn holds a Bachelor's of Journalism degree from the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, a J.D. from Marquette University School of Law, and an LL.M. in Judicial Process degree from the University of Virginia School of Law. Wynn's legal career began in the U.S. Navy JAG Corps where he served for four years on active duty and 26 years in the reserves. He was a Certified Military Trial Judge and retired at the rank of Captain. Before becoming a state appellate judge in 1990, Judge Wynn was a litigator in the eastern North Carolina law firm of Fitch, Butterfield & Wynn. He serves on the Marquette University Board of Trustees and is a Senior Lecturing Fellow at Duke University School of Law. He is one of the drafters of the 2007 ABA Model Code of Judicial Conduct. Recently, Chief Justice Roberts appointed him to serve on the Judicial Conference's Information Technology Committee.

DONATE TO HELP SEND A DIVERSE SCHOLAR TO LAW SCHOOL

OPEN THE DOORS OF OPPORTUNITY

The ABA Legal Opportunity Scholarship Fund helps to break down financial barriers to law school and the legal profession's door to passionate young people of color by providing crucial financial assistance to diverse students struggling to pay their law school expenses.

- Nearly 800 applicants compete for one of twenty scholarships awarded each year.
- Each scholar receives $15,000 over the 3 years they attend an ABA-accredited law school.
- Since its inception, 360 diverse students from across the country have received a scholarship. 98% complete their Juris Doctor.

YOU MAKE A DIFFERENCE

With your support of the ABA Legal Opportunity Scholarship Fund, we will continue to improve diversity in the legal profession — first in our nation’s law schools and, ultimately, throughout the ranks of our profession.

You are helping diverse lawyers enter and stay in the field of law. Please invest in the future of diversity in the legal profession. Your gift, of any amount, will change the life of a scholarship recipient.
