Antitrust Law Journal Publication Procedures

Antitrust Law Journal (ISSN 0003-6056) is published three times each year by the American Bar Association Antitrust Law Section as a service to its members and for the benefit of lawyers, economists, academics, and judges working in the field of antitrust and consumer protection law. The Journal publishes, among other things, original articles, comments, and essays on significant current issues of antitrust and consumer protection law.

The Antitrust Law Journal welcomes the submission of original articles not previously published elsewhere. Articles will be reviewed by the Board of Editors and peer-refereed by selected scholars and practitioners. Final publication decisions rest with the Board of Editors. Student-written submissions will not be accepted. Manuscripts are submitted at the sender's risk and no responsibility is assumed for the return of material. No compensation is paid for articles published. Correspondence and manuscripts should be sent to the Executive Editor, Tina Miller, by email to: antitrust@att.net. For more information, visit us at www.americanbar.org/groups/antitrust_law/publications/antitrust_law_journal.html.

Material published in the Antitrust Law Journal does not express the views or the position of the American Bar Association or of the Antitrust Law Section unless that material has been adopted on behalf of the Association by the ABA House of Delegates or has been adopted on behalf of the Antitrust Law Section by its Council and such adoption is specifically noted in the material.

The Antitrust Law Journal is distributed regularly to members of the Section. Institutions and individuals not eligible for membership in the ABA or in the Section of Antitrust Law may obtain an annual subscription to the Antitrust Law Journal for $75.00 ($85.00 for Alaska, Hawaii, U.S. Possessions, and foreign countries) or copies of individual issues for $30.00 each. Special rates upon request for copies to be used in law school classes may be offered by the ABA Antitrust Law Section.

Copies of recent issues can be obtained from the ABA Service Center at (800) 285-2221; fax (312) 988-5528; email orders@americanbar.org. Back issues published two or more years ago can be purchased from William S. Hein & Co. Inc., (800) 828-7571; fax (761) 883-8100; email www.orders@wshein.com. Subscriptions are available from the ABA Service Center or the ABA Web Store, http://www.ShopABA.org (click on “ABA Store” and then “Periodicals”). Individual articles are available on Westlaw, LEXIS, and the Antitrust Law Journal webpage (for Section members).
