CORRECTION

The word “than” was omitted from a sentence on page 805 of Paul Crampton’s article, “Abuse” of “Dominance” in Canada: Building on the International Experience, 73 Antitrust L.J. 803 (2006). The sentence should read: “This test would focus upon whether prices would be substantially higher, or levels of service, quality, variety, etc. substantially lower, than in the absence of the impugned practices.”
