

Quarterly E-Newsletter

Volume 7

Spring 2007

ABA Commission on Domestic Violence Activities and Programming

---

Innovative Responses to Teen Dating Violence

ABA Annual Meeting, San Francisco, CA

August 10, 2007 9:00 - 10:30 A.M.

The ABA Commission on Domestic Violence and the ABA Judicial Division are co-sponsoring this CLE program at the ABA Annual Meeting in San Francisco, California. Invited speakers include: Brandy Davis, staff attorney from Break the Cycle; Judge Eugene Hyman; Judge James Riehl; and Mary Beth Buchanan, Acting Director of the Office on Violence Against Women at the U.S. Department of Justice. We are thrilled to have such a distinguished group participating and have no doubt this will be a very popular program.

---

New and Improved Website: www.abanet.org/domviol

For those of you who haven't been to the Commission's website in a while, you're in for a treat! It took us a while (you may remember the "Under Construction" notices) but our newly organized site has been up and running for over a month, and we're receiving wonderful feedback about the ease of use for attorneys and others looking for resources. We're also happy to report that it is one of the top 10 entry portals to the ABA site as a whole—quite an accomplishment for a small group!

A special highlight of the site is the "Key Information for Attorneys" section, which appears on the home page. This section includes a drop-down menu of practice areas, with links to specific resources and publications (both ABA and others) related to each topic. We've also created a section for our "Statutory Summary Charts," where we will continue to post our legislative surveys. Other popular features are our "Key Statistics" and our list of "Useful Websites", both available from the home page.

Stay tuned as we continue to develop this exciting resource!