The 21st Century Judge: Challenges for the Future

PRESENTED BY:

THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION JUDICIAL DIVISION
NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF STATE TRIAL JUDGES

Part I, Technology: Changing What Happens Inside and Outside the Courtroom (CLE) – This exciting four-session program will discuss technology and its fifty-year impact upon judges and courts: (1) Present day use of technology in the courtroom and during discovery, including ethical issues; (2) Online Dispute Resolution, the next frontier of alternative dispute resolution; (3) Technology that is changing the way the court system and judges operate, including case management, e-filing, and legal research; and (4) Current trends and the future of legal technology over the next decade.

Moderator:

Hon. Toni Clarke (Upper Marlboro, MD)

Speakers:

Hon. Arthur Ahalt (Annapolis, MD)

Victoria Cashman (Middletown, OH)

Hon. Herbert Dixon (Washington, DC)

Thomas O'Connor (New Orleans, LA)

Hon. Ben Tennille (Greensboro, NC)

Paul Unger (Columbus, OH)

Lunch and Learn, Contempt of Court (non-CLE) – Please join us for a lunch and learn during which Mark Curriden will discuss a century-old landmark case that forever changed American Jurisprudence. This will showcase the first and only contempt case ever heard by the Supreme Court of the United States. You may bring your lunch or purchase lunch in advance through us (see information below).

Part II, Successful Collaborative Courts and How to Develop Them & Collaborative Courts: A Skills Workshop (CLE) – The program will begin with a presentation of the common skills and techniques required to successfully handle and maintain a collaborative court. This Skills Workshop will focus on communicating with collaborating agencies and the parties involved. This program will conclude with a candid discussion with judges who have developed collaborative courts around the country. A “how to” approach will be presented to assist others interested in pursuing the development of collaborative courts in their jurisdictions.
