

2006-07 Committee Appointments

Committees are an essential part of the Section of Family Law, and it is the members who drive committees to reach their potential. From planning CLE programs and teleseminars to writing articles, creating sample forms and model acts, committees keep members informed about developments in their particular field. Committees are a great way to get to know other members of the Section, be a resource to colleagues and gain experience in the Section.

The Section of Family Law currently has 22 substantive committees to choose from:

Adoption	Law Practice Management
Alimony	Marital Property
Alternative Dispute Resolution	Marital Torts
Alternative Families	Membership and Marketing
Bankruptcy	Military Law
Child Support	Partners
Congressional Relations	Pro Bono Awards
Custody	Reproductive & Genetic Technology
Domestic Violence	Taxation
Elder Law	Technology
Ethics	Trial Practice & Techniques
International Law

Each membership year, the Section considers new ideas and leaders for each of its committees. If you are interested in becoming more involved in a substantive committee or wish to be considered for leadership for 2006-07, please email familylaw@abanet.org with an explanation of your interest.
