

Members on the Move

Section member David Hoffman of Boston, MA is featured in an ABA Journal article entitled: "A Multidoor Law Office: Divorce Clients at this Firm Can Get Team Advice on Emotional and Financial Issues." Hoffman is the founding member of the Boston Law Collaborative, LLC, which is pioneering a multidisciplinary approach to delivering services, with a psychologist and a certified financial planner serving as space-sharing affiliates of the firm. (Click here for a copy of the article.) Hoffman, who is chair-elect of the ABA Section of Dispute Resolution, is a mediator, collaborative law attorney, and co-editor of a recent book, Bringing Peace into the Room: How the Personal Qualities of the Mediator Impact the Process of Conflict Resolution, published by Jossey-Bass in September.

Virginia S. Mueller of Sacramento, CA was appointed as the Liaison of the Senior Lawyers Division of the ABA to the Section of Family Law.

Marshal S. Willick of Las Vegas, NV was invited to participate in State Department Roundtable on improvements to ICARA (the US implementation of the Hague Convention, scheduled for Dec. 8th).