

ABA TECHSHOW 2006

On April 20-22, 2006 at the Sheraton Chicago Hotel & Towers, ABA TECHSHOW® will celebrate its 20th anniversary. ABA TECHSHOW® is the world's premier legal technology conference and exposition developed by and for lawyers and other legal professionals. Over 1400 participants are expected to attend ABA TECHSHOW® to take advantage of more than 60 legal technology programs and training sessions offered in fourteen topical tracks. Over 100 technology vendors will feature the latest in legal technology products and services.

In addition, the ABA Law Practice Management Section will host an educational track providing practical, down-to-earth practice management advice for both the tech-savvy and the technovice. A vendor track will also be offered providing demonstrations of new software and technological tools and product information.

This year ABA Section of Family Law members will receive a $100 association member discount to use when registering for the conference. Register early and couple the $200 Early Bird Discount (ends March 10) with the $100 discount, to save a total of $300 in registration fees. Act now to receive this incredible benefit!

To register now, visit the ABA TECHSHOW® web site at www.techshow.com. Choose Program Promoter Registration and specify promoter code PP107.
