

Members on the Move

Section member Allen Bailey of Anchorage, Alaska is our featured Member on the Move for July. Mr. Bailey co-authored Ch. 111 SLA 2004, which is Alaska's new legislation (eff. July 1, 2004) that establishes a rebuttable presumption against awarding legal or physical custody of a child to a batterer. The co-author of this legislation was Paige R. Hodson, a domestic violence survivor and mother of two children; she is also a well-known real estate appraiser in Anchorage.

Additionally, Mr. Bailey wrote a chapter on child custody litigation for the second edition of The Impact of Domestic Violence on Your Legal Practice: A Lawyer's Handbook, to be published by the ABA Commission on Domestic Violence this summer. It has apparently already gone to press, according to the CDV staff.
