

2005-2006 Benefit Highlights

The Section of Family Law is committed to bringing you resources and benefits that enhance your practice. Next year will be no exception as we are planning CLE, publications and events with your interests in mind. Here is just a glimpse of what is in store.

2005-2006 Section of Family Law Membership Benefit Highlights:

- CLE meetings in San Diego and Washington, DC as well as TeleSeminars to participate in without leaving your office
- Publications including Family Advocate and Family Law Quarterly to keep you up-to-date on a variety of issues that affect your practice
- Access to active email discussion lists giving you an extensive network of knowledge on a daily basis
- Special pricing on soon-to-be-released Family Law books

To make sure you don't miss a single benefit in the coming year, renew your ABA and Section of Family Law dues today. To renew your ABA and Section of Family Law membership, simply return your ABA invoice, call the ABA Service Center at 800-285-2221 or go www.abanet.org and click on "Lawyer Resources."