

2004 ABA Pro Bono Publico Awards

The Standing Committee on Pro Bono and Public Service was truly impressed with the 21 Pro Bono Publico Award nominations received this year. Having considered all of the nominations, the Committee selected as recipients of the 2004 Awards the following lawyers and law firm for extraordinary contributions of legal services to those who cannot afford representation.

Arnold & Porter, Washington, DC
Roy E. Barnes, Atlanta, GA
Stephen Cullen, Towson, MD
Toby Hollander, Portland, ME
Warren Sinsheimer, New York, NY

Toby Hollander was selected as the recipient of the Ann Liechty Pro Bono Award, a special award given to honor a lawyer who has provided outstanding pro bono legal services to children in custody cases.

ABA President Dennis W. Archer and the Standing Committee on Pro Bono and Public Service cohost the Awards presentation at the Pro Bono Publico Awards Assembly Luncheon in Atlanta, Georgia. The luncheon and presentation will be held at noon on Monday, August 9, at the Georgia World Congress Center.
