

The National Center for Refugee and Immigrant Children

PRO BONO OPPORTUNITY AND TRAINING

The National Center for Refugee and Immigrant Children was established in 2005 to match unaccompanied children released from U.S. custody with pro bono services. The Center was created by a generous grant from United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees Goodwill Ambassador, Angelina Jolie.

The Center invites you to attend a free training session to learn the basic skills necessary to represent an unaccompanied child in immigration court. This training will include review of key immigration laws and procedures as well as the unique requirements necessary to represent a child.

Date: May 19, 2005 Time: 4:00 – 6:00 p.m. (reception to follow)

Location: The Law Firm of Jenkins & Gilchrist
1445 Ross Avenue, Suite 3200
Dallas, Texas 77010-3095

The panelists will include:

- The Honorable D. Anthony Rogers, Immigration Judge, Executive Office for Immigration Review
- Jodi Goodwin, Immigration Attorney
- Paul Zoltan, Law Office of Paul S. Zoltan
- Yolanda Einstein, Legal Director, Child Immigrant Project, Human Rights Initiative

Also, please join us for an informal reception immediately following the training. The attorneys will have an opportunity to meet individuals currently representing unaccompanied children.

An application for 2.0 CLE Credits, including .5 of Ethics Credit, is pending.

To register, please complete the information below:

Name _____ Law Firm/Agency: _____

Address _____
_____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

To register, please email kwirtz@jenkens.com or fax registration to 214-855-4300 (Attn: Kerri Wirtz). Registration must be complete by May 12, 2005.

To learn more about the Center, please visit our website at www.refugees.org.

