Two of the Section's members have received favorable mention in the September 2003 Milwaukee Magazine's survey of Milwaukee's Best Lawyers. Here is what they said:

Gregg M. Herman of Loeb & Herman in Milwaukee, WI ...[has] been ranked high in the part, particularly for wealthy clients. ... One barrister commends Herman, 51, whose well-respected partner, Leonard Loeb, died last spring, for tackling the complicated financial and control issues that can come with wealthy clients. Colleagues also say he is "very common-sense oriented" and "highly energized."

Carlton Stansbury of Burbach & Stansbury in Milwaukee, WI moved up in our rankings this year. He made the list as tops for middle-income divorce clients in our Best Divorce Lawyers listings. Stansbury, 38, is "easy to work with, cooperative," say colleagues. "Very level-headed - exemplifies the type of family law practice all should partake in."
