INVITATION

Invitation

The ISFL (International Society of Family Law) is a global scholarly organization dedicated to the study of family law with over 500 members from over 50 nations.

It will convene its 13th World Conference in Vienna, Austria, September 16-20, 2008. Members and other scholars and professionals interested in family law are invited to attend, and to propose papers for presentation.

Theme

The 13th World Conference will consider whether and how the law supports the family and its members and, respectively, whether the state and the economy provides sufficient means to sustain family structures, or vice versa.
