SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

2010 SPRING MEETING

APRIL 13-17, 2010

NEW YORK, NY

Dear Prospective Sponsor:

Thank you for considering sponsoring our 2010 Spring Meeting to be held April 13-17, 2010 at the Grand Hyatt New York in New York, NY.

We have developed many exciting sponsorship opportunities that will bring together your organization and our meeting attendees. If you are interested in modifying one of these sponsorship opportunities to better fit your needs or wishes, we'd be happy to discuss an arrangement with you that will be mutually beneficial.

Additionally, if you are interested in contributing more than the suggested levels as outlined in this packet and would like to discuss larger sponsorship options or, if you are interested in sponsoring a specific aspect of this meeting in the form of in-kind donations, please let us know and we can provide you with our projected expenses and needs.

We hope that you join us in becoming a sponsor and thereby playing an active part in the success of the 2010 Spring Meeting in New York, NY! If you have any questions or require additional information, please contact Jenny Abreu, 202-662-1663 (phone) or Abreuj@staff.abanet.org.

Sincerely,

*The Section of International Law and the 2010 Spring Meeting Co-Chairs,

Glenn Hendrix (Arnall Golden Gregory LLP), Milos Barutciski (Bennett Jones LLP), Michael Byowitz (Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz), Albert Garrofé (Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira) and Lisa Ryan (Fragomen, Del Rey, Bensen & Loewy, LLP), Michael L. Sher (Law Offices of Michael L. Sher) and Sandy Tronier (Discovery Consultants).

About ABA International...

Established in 1878, the American Bar Association Section of International Law (ABA International) is the leader in the development of policy in the international arena, the promotion of the rule of law, and the education of international law practitioners. ABA International is also the only ABA entity that focuses on the full range of international legal issues and is involved in a wide variety of substantive legal activities.

ABA International serves 22,000+ members. In addition to private practitioners, the Section's members include more than 1,500 in-house counsel; over 800 U.S. lawyers living abroad, and more than 1,000 non-U.S. lawyers in 90 countries. The Section of International Law is the ABA home for many of the world's leading international lawyers and is the ABA's forum for the discussion of current and emerging issues in international law. ABA International serves its members with a wide range of resources, from seasonal meetings such as the Annual, Midyear, Spring, and Fall Meetings, to CLE teleconferences and cutting-edge publications; networking and practice development opportunities, more than 60 special interest and regional committees, and much more. The Spring Meeting is always our largest conference each year.

About the 2010 Spring Meeting ...

The 2010 Spring Meeting is a "Must-Attend" conference for international lawyers. Between 1,300 and 1,500 international practitioners are expected to attend the 2010 Spring Meeting, making it the best attended event in ABA International's history. Attendees will be able to take advantage of a unique opportunity to network, and earn a full year's worth of CLE credits from the slate of approximately 70 cutting-edge CLE programs arranged in several program tracks.

Sponsoring will allow you to...

- Build long-term relationships with key industry leaders and groups;
- Enhance your organization's exposure to individuals and other organizations in the international law arena;
- Create a value investment for your organization through co-branding with ABA International;
- Increase industry awareness of your organization through affiliation with ABA International; and
- Highlight and Reinforce your organization's position as an industry leader.

Sponsor Benefits ...

All sponsors receive the following recognition:

- Your organization's name and logo in the brochure and registration materials sent to ABA International members and members of affiliated international bar associations and lawyer organizations – a total of approximately 30,000 interested individuals;
- Your organization's name and logo posted on the 2010 Spring Meeting website with a hyperlink to your organization's homepage;
- Your organization's name and logo in the International Law News, circulated to 22,000+ ABA International Members and hundreds of other subscribers;
- Acknowledgement of Sponsors on signage in the Registration and Exhibition area;
- Opportunity to display your organization's literature and promotional material at the meeting;
- Acknowledgement in the Onsite Meeting Information Guide circulated to all attendees;
- Recognition by ABA International leadership at various programs and sponsored events.

Additional enhanced recognition of your organization is available- please see the specific sponsorship opportunities for more exciting details.

Sponsorship Opportunities...

If you are interested in sponsoring at more than the suggested levels below and would like to discuss options for doing so, please let us know and we will be happy to discuss such options with you.

* If your firm/organization is interested in a dual sponsorship for either of our upcoming meetings, 2010 Fall Meeting in Paris, France, or the 2011 Spring Meeting in Washington, DC, please contact Jenny Abreu at 202.662.1663/Abreu@staff.abanet.org.
