Don't Miss This Opportunity! Join Us in Denver, October 19–21

The ABA Section of Real Property, Probate and Trust Law and the ABA Section of Taxation will once again co-sponsor a Fall CLE Meeting during October 19–21 at the Hyatt Regency in Denver, Colorado.

This is the fourth year that we have decided to combine our CLE offerings with those of the Section of Taxation. Last year's meeting in San Francisco was a big success, and we are looking forward to this year's meeting as well.

This meeting presents many opportunities for you to experience CLE that is beneficial to Section members who share many common legal interests. Join us and take advantage of networking with the country's leading attorneys and government officials to discuss the latest initiatives, regulations, legislative forecasts, and planning ideas.

The meeting will include stand-alone real property and estate planning CLE as well as joint programming with the Section of Taxation.

Watch for details at www.abanet.org/rppt/2006.

Join a RPPT Section Committee

If you are a RPPT member and do not belong to a group and/or committee, you are not taking full advantage of the opportunities offered by the Section. Group membership is free of charge to all RPPT members. Once you sign up for a group, you may wish to then sign up for a specific subject matter committee within the group. These smaller committees are working bodies, while the larger groups accept members on an informational basis. The Section has over 70 committees involving over 3,000 Section members.

The Section encourages members who wish to participate actively in a group to contact the Section office at (312) 988-5651 for further information on group membership. For the complete Guide to Committees, including group and committee descriptions, please visit our web site at www.abanet.org/rppt.
