Mr. Weintraub's practice has centered on taxation for more than 35 years. He helps clients plan and structure transactions so that all state and local tax obligations are minimized. He represents clients in all aspects of state and local tax compliance and litigation, from audits through trials and appeals to the appellate courts. Mr. Weintraub is co-chair of Schnader's Tax and Business Planning Practice Group pertaining to state and local taxation. Before entering private practice, he was chief of tax litigation for the City of Philadelphia's Law Department, during which he also served as chief counsel of the mayor's Tax Reform Commission. In 2003, he was appointed to serve as a member of the new Tax Reform Commission created by the Home Rule Charter.
