February 5, 2019

Dear ABA Day Registrants,

In conjunction with your upcoming participation in ABA Day events during the week of April 9, we are pleased to inform you of a unique opportunity arranged for this year’s attendees on Thursday, April 11, 2019 from 1:00 pm to 3:30 p.m.

The ABA Standing Committee on the Law Library of Congress, working with the Law Library of Congress, invites you to take part in a special visit to our nation’s Law Library of Congress. The largest law library in the world, the Law Library of Congress offers an unparalleled repository of legal knowledge along with specialists dedicated to helping you access its vast resources.

This LLC visit has been designed exclusively for ABA Day registrants. The tour agenda includes:

➢ A tour of the Thomas Jefferson Building;
➢ An overview of the Law Library of Congress;
➢ A tour of the Law Library Reading; and
➢ A rare book presentation given by Nathan Dorn, Rare Book Curator.

The LLC visit capacity is limited to 25 persons. We hope that your schedule will allow you to take advantage of this opportunity, and we welcome you to the nation’s capital.

To register, email your RSVP to Anne Brown at anne.brown@americanbar.org by Friday, March 29, 2019.

If you have questions, please contact Anne Brown at anne.brown@americanbar.org.

Sincerely,

Anne P. Brown
Staff Liaison, Standing Committee Library of Congress
